11. SHOOTING RANGE APPROVAL

You only need to provide information under points 9, 10 & 12 if you are applying for the re-approval of a current range.

The minimum standards for range construction can be obtained by contacting Weapons Licensing Branch—Brisbane (07) 3015 7777.

In support of your application, you must ensure that you attach the following documentation:

1. Details of the approved shooting club permit or approved association/training entity in control of the proposed range;
2. A locality plan of the proposed range site (e.g., BLIN/Cadastral map) and surrounding area with at least a 5 km radius of the site to scale of 1:25000 (not required for an indoor shooting range application);
3. A scaled surveyed plan of the proposed site to include the property boundary, firing point, centre line, target line and stop butt (if applicable);
4. Longitudinal and cross sectional plans detailing the height, location and nature of the devices proposed to prevent the escape of projectiles;
5. Where other than earth embankments are to be utilised, a large scale plan drawing of the intended construction and specifications of materials (e.g., baffles, bullet catcher, enclosures);
6. Type of target system proposed (e.g., turning target, metal target, falling plate, timber, paper target);
7. Photographs of the proposed range site;
8. Aerial photographs are also preferable (in some instances may be required);
9. Details and verification of the site occupation arrangements by the entity (e.g., leasing agreements, property titles or firing rights agreement for the site held by the entity). This is to include the entire danger area;
10. Written non-objection from the local authority or council for the body to conduct the activities at the proposed range site;
11. Documentation from the local authority or council advising of the area zoning, activities approved for the proposed area, any proposed future activities or zoning of the area (e.g., other sporting venues, housing or industrial development);
12. Categories of the shooting disciplines proposed to be conducted at the range (e.g., clay target, full bore rifle, pistol, archery—clout/target). This is to include advice of match types, weapon types to be used and calibres; AND
13. Advise whether the range is to be used for any other purposes (e.g., training or testing firearms/crossbows).

12. SHOOTING RANGE MODIFICATION APPROVAL

If the club has not recently provided details and documentation as outlined in Section 11 of this application (shooting range approval) you may be required to provide this information.

In support of your application, you must ensure that you attach details of the modification to the existing shooting range approval with suitable scale drawings.
