Can you help _____ get home from school safely?

As _____ is leaving school for the day, a person in a car opens the door and says:

"I'm here to drive you home. Your Mum has been taken to hospital and I've come to pick you up."

_____ has never seen this person before.

Does _____ know this person?

Does _____ feel safe with this person?

Can _____ get help if it is needed?

Do Mum, Dad or Carer know where _____ will be?

What should _____ do next?

Can you help _____ play on her bike safely?

_____ is riding her bike along a bicycle track. She is riding with friends but couldn't keep up and they rode a long way ahead. _____ is wearing a helmet and her bike is in good condition so _____ is feeling safe. As the track nears bushland, a person asks _____ to stop and help them find their little lost dog. _____ loves dogs and hates to think the little dog may be hurt.

If I meet someone on my way to or from school, at play, the shops or anywhere else and that person wants me to go with them, I ask myself these four questions.....

Do I know this person?

Do I feel safe with this person?

Can I get help if I need it?

Do Mum, Dad or Carer know where I will be?

If I answer "NO" to even one of these questions, then I say:

"I don't have to go."
