Regulatory proposals where no RIA is required	The Fighting Antisemitism and Keeping Guns out of the Hands of Terrorists and Criminals Amendment Act 2026 (the Fighting Antisemitism Act) received Royal Assent on 11 March 2026. The Fighting Antisemitism Act makes a range of legislative reforms to deliver on the Government’s commitment to stronger laws that stamp out antisemitism and prevent the misuse of firearms by terrorists and criminals. This includes amendments to improve the efficiency of the Firearm Prohibition Order (FPO) scheme which is designed to deter high-risk individuals from acquiring, possessing or using firearms. The Fighting Antisemitism Act provides that amendments relating to the FPO scheme are to commence by proclamation. The Proclamation will fix 1 July 2026 for the commencement of these provisions. The QPS has assessed the Proclamation as machinery in nature as it has the effect of commencing provisions not yet in force. The QPS has identified that no further regulatory impact analysis is required under the Queensland Government Better Regulation Policy.
